

Phil Baca

Phil obtains an extensive resume and years of experience in the audio visual, music and recording industries and is part of our experienced team. His career began at the age of sixteen, as musician in a local band. From there his career in the music industry evolved to where he has performed as a musical entertainer playing drums, bass guitar and as a vocalist in the local Spanish and Gospel music industries. Phil also began to provide audio services for various functions around town.

In addition to his experience as a musician, Phil has been a recording engineer and producer for local artists for 30+ years. Phil expanded his career and began working in the audio visual industry and obtains previous experience as an audio visual director (17+ years) in addition to experience over the entire audio visual operation from set up, tear down, customer service and all the in betweens. Phil's extensive experience of working with various organizations, businesses, and individuals in addition to his professional customer service skills is what has made Phil successful and a valuable asset to the company. Phil is one of the founding members of Crossroads Enterprises, LLC that is the parent company of CR music & entertainment and has been a business advisor since September 2004.
